

PROHIBITION TAKES PROFIT OUT OF TAXI BUSINESS

BOSTON, Aug. 23.—Joy riding in taxicabs has come to an end with prohibition. A survey of the various taxi companies in the greater city showed that the loss to the companies was about 50 percent, with a resultant loss of profitings to approximately 100 million dollars for the plan of the market of about 100 million taxicabs for sale. Taxi companies having stands near the hotels and in the theater district have been the greatest sufferers. Some taxi men figure that other amusements will eventually appeal to people who formerly patronized hotels and cafes and drew back and forth from bar to bar in a taxi.
